

Dangers

Hidden in Plain Sight

Jones County Parents and Youth
Please join us!

Tues., March 12, 6-8pm

At the NEW Jones Co. Youth
Development Center, 800 N. Maple,
Monticello (Fairgrounds)

6pm - Dinner, Free Subway Sandwiches!

6:30pm - Mike and Jan Rozga, parents who lost their son to K2
(a newer synthetic drug), will tell their story. Parents should use their discretion as to the maturity level of their children.

7:30pm - Deputy Eckhardt will talk to parents about marijuana, K2 & other local drugs of abuse. Parents will find dangers hidden within a typical teen's bedroom, while the youth play a substance abuse prevention game for prizes.

Childcare/activities will be provided. When registering, indicate how many younger children. All youth must come with their parents.

Register at 462-5030 or contactus@jonescountycoalition.org by March 5!

(Snow date will be March 14)

Sponsored by the Jones County Safe and Healthy Youth Coalition, Governor's Office of Drug Control Policy, Iowa Federation of Families for Children's Mental Health and the Jones County Family Council.
