

BUILDING AN Effective Coalition

THIS WORKSHOP IS DESIGNED TO ASSIST THE COALITION IN:

- Continuing to move from planning to action
- Strengthening the coalition to become a high performance organization producing results

THE INTERACTIVE DAY WILL INCLUDE:

- Introducing effective community problem-solving strategies
- Understanding the “strategy” behind strategic plans to address youth alcohol and other drug use
- Involving all segments of the community taking an active role in making a difference

TRAINING DETAILS

WHEN: Thursday, June 30, 2011 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.
WHERE: Monticello Renaissance Center
COST: FREE! Lunch is even included!
RSVP: Contact Jennifer Husmann at 462-5030 or email jhusmann@asac.us by June 27, 2011.

ABOUT OUR PRESENTER:

Rhonda Ramsey Molina currently serves as part-time director of the SAGA Coalition, a Drug Free Communities grantee on the east side of Cincinnati, Ohio. In addition to her work as coalition leader, Rhonda serves as consultant to the CADCA Coalition Institute to provide training and technical assistance to coalitions across the country. With nearly 20 years in the prevention field, Ms. Ramsey Molina works with coalitions to solidify their community plans, strengthen their organization, recruit and retain members and to move from planning to action.

Engaging our communities in efforts to create and maintain safe and healthy youth in Jones County.

203 E. Main Street | Anamosa, IA 52205 | 462-5030 | www.jonescountycoalition.org

